We've always known that we were on the devil's hit list, but his attacks have become much more blatant—everything from mysterious illnesses to things far worse, but we know that greater is He that is in us than the one that is in the world (1 Jn. 4:4) and so we rejoice that our light and momentary trials are not worth comparing to the joy that is before us, but that doesn't mean that we still don't need your prayer support.

In March, Brienne came home from Spring Break and collapsed downtown. We discovered that she had suffered a severe adrenal fatigue and was ordered to spend the next week in bed, with a very strict lifestyle/diet change upon returning to school. Thankfully, she didn't suffer any lasting ramifications, but she is still dealing with the symptoms of the attack, and is having to take it easy for the rest of the summer.

Heather has also been experiencing her attacks from the enemy. Please pray with us that she would be given the strength to stand firm against his attacks and that his power would be broken in the mighty name of Jesus!
