

Beckoning Listeners to the Bridge

Myrrh's new album, Bridge, stirs passion for God and renews hope in His awesome power

Bridge (In Tune Music, February 2005) Myrrh's latest release, strikingly communicates the group's distinctive passion for both musical excellence and ministry. With a repertoire of songs that blends pop Christian contemporary with praise and worship, Myrrh touches its audiences with a powerful message of hope and healing.

Myrrh, featuring the refreshing vocal harmonies and transparent testimonies of Bill, Jeanine, Brienne and Heather Murk, is one of the most exceptional Christian music groups of today. Combined, the group members, formerly known by their family name, have ten albums to their credit, two of which have been featured in the "Top Ten" on radio stations around the country. More than just another collection of entertainers, Myrrh is committed to building faith in the only One who has the answers to today's complex problems.

Now, with their newest release, Myrrh guides its listeners to the Bridge that spans the treacherous waters of doubt, fear, weariness, and suffering. Leading to the land of freedom, joy, and wholeness, Bridge tenderly carries the heavy-laden through the mystery of faith to the wonders waiting on the other side. With the anointed lyrics of nearly all original songs, this captivating album is filled with compelling spiritual truths that revive both personal faith and spiritual passion.

As the group tours with the theme of Bridge, Myrrh's eagerness to spread the oil of joy through contemporary Christian music, and to be a balm of hope and peace to the brokenhearted, continues to usher audiences into the presence of the King. Myrrh Live, a DVD based on the album and Myrrh's life-changing concerts, is also now available.
